

FACE MELTER

INFUSED PRE-ROLL

LIGHT IT. HIT IT. SURVIVE IT.

This isn't just a pre-roll—it's a weapon of mass obliteration, crafted for those who laugh in the face of moderation and thrive on pure, unrelenting chaos. The Face Melter doesn't whisper sweet nothings; it roars like a 10-ton full stack exploding in your skull and leaves you in a smoldering heap of euphoria and destruction.

Melt your face completely off with the world's most extreme infused pre-roll. Packed with grade-A indoor grown ground flower and quintuple infused with five different THC concentrates - so potent it comes with a hazard label, Face Melter hits like a wrecking ball on fire.

Forget chill vibes and quiet nights. Face Melter doesn't "ease" you into anything. The second you light it, your lungs ignite, your brain detonates, and you're launched into a dimension where the riffs never stop, the volume never drops, and the only rule is to go harder.

WARNING: THIS JOINT DOESN'T JUST MELT FACES; IT VAPORIZES SOULS. USE RESPONSIBLY—OR DON'T, FACE MELTER DOESN'T CARE. IT'S HERE TO BURN, OBLITERATE, & LEAVE NOTHING BUT ASH AND GLORY IN ITS WAKE.

BURN IT DOWN LEAVE NO SURVIVORS

Expect nothing less than total obliteration as Face Melter torches your senses with brutal potency and flavor straight from the depths of an inferno. Whether you're chasing the heaviest high or just looking to watch the world burn (metaphorically, of course), this pre-roll takes no prisoners.

Face Melter is a 1-gram, quintuple-infused monster, loaded with 45%+ THC and powered by five layers of pure potency: diamonds, oil, crumble, terps, and kief. Every hit is a firestorm of intensity, designed for those who don't just smoke—they conquer.

- One gram of indoor-grown destruction
- Infused with five high-potency concentrates
- 45%+ THC – melt your face off effects

THE UNHOLY TRINITY

NITROBLITERATOR

HYBRID

Expect an explosive head-to-toe surge so intense, it feels like a sonic onslaught reverberating through your soul. In the belly of this beast lies Bacio Gelato terpenes by Sherbinskis—the gassiest flavor bomb ever measured—launching a sweet, creamy assault on your taste buds.

OCTANNIHILATOR

INDICA

Prepare for a crushing, slow-burning descent so overwhelming, it echoes through your spine like the final chord of a doomed requiem. Lurking in its molten core are Munson terpenes—a dank, spicy, pungent elixir that devours your taste buds with old-school fury.

CRUDECIATOR

SATIVA

A high-octane cerebral surge so intense, it feels like an atomic bomb vaporizing your bones. In the heart of this demon roll roars Jack Herer terps—woody, citrus, and gas colliding in a bold flavor assault on your senses.

"It decimated my Friday night in the best way possible. The diesel-y pungent, almost caustic aroma assaults the nostrils when you first open the tube letting you know you're in for a wild ride." - Tim Z.

"It smoked perfect. The effects lasted longer than I expected and had an amazing gassy taste to it." - Milena C.

"Uuuuuuhhhhhhhhhhh..."
